

الخدمات المصرفية الإسلامية
Islamic Banking Services

Sheikh Dr. Ahmed Bin Abdulaziz Al Haddad

Born in 1955, holder of PhD in Shari'a from Umm Al Qura University year of 1414 AH (Hijri)

Grand Mufti and head of the Fatwa Department at the Dubai Fatwa Centre and member of Authority of Senior Scholars of Dubai.

Expert of Islamic Fiqh Academy affiliated to Islamic World League

A member of:

- UAE Fatwa council
- Former Member of Fatwa Board of Abu Dhabi
- International Islamic Fiqh Academy affiliated to Islamic Conference Organization
- Shari'ah Boards of several financial companies and institutions as well as Takaful and Cooperative Insurance institutions
- Shari'ah Board of Zakat Trust
- Former Member of Shari'ah Board of Classification and Supervision of the General Council for Islamic Banks and Financial Institutions (CIBAFI)
- Former Member of Shari'ah Board of General Authority of Islamic Affairs & Endowments
- Former Associated Professor at College of Islamic Studies, and Imam Malik Shari'ah & Law College

Presenter of Shari'ah Fatwa Programs, religious and social live programs at Dubai TV channels as well as UAE Radios and TV channels besides some TV channels in neighboring countries for about 20 years.

Has many books in (Fiqh), contemporary issues as well as missionary issues and scientific research works submitted in Fiqh and missionary conferences some of which are printed such as:

- Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) 'Ethics in Holy Quran and Sunna, 3 journals.
- Revision of Seekers Methodology in Fiqh for Imam Al Nawawi, 3 journals.
- Shares & Bonds and Envisagement and Provisions.
- Awqaf Fiqh
- Fatwa is Judgments and Disciplines
- Importance of Collective Awqaf and Its Relation to Public Interest Institutions
- Thousands of Fatwas, essays and revisions issued and published in official newspapers and magazines locally and abroad